

Cautious Income Portfolio

28th February 2021

INTELLIGENT INTUITIVE INVESTING

Investment Objective

The Rivers Cautious Income Portfolio targets income of 3.5% by diversifying across a broad range of assets with differing return and volatility profiles. The portfolio is expected to maintain real value, net of income, after inflation while minimising the possibility of the investment falling in value. The portfolio may be somewhat exposed to global equity and interest rate market cycles. The portfolio's investment value will fluctuate in the short term, but we would not expect significant falls in value over a sustained period.

Market Comment

Asset price volatility continued in February as inflation concerns met rising confidence and positive vaccine news. Anchor assets suffered as interest rates for Gilts increased significantly. Among 'Diversifiers', commodity and property prices rose significantly but unusually this did not translate into gold prices, which had their largest price decline since the pandemic started. For 'Enhancers', UK and Emerging Market equities added value but Sterling strength more than offset the returns from other developed market equities. In the middle of the month, the portfolio was rebalanced decreasing overall US equity exposure but maintaining the overall underweight 'Enhancer' allocation. We believe risk remains elevated and await more favourable opportunities to add risk.

Rivers Asset Classification System:

"Anchors": investments selected for low market correlation, low risk and capital preservation core characteristics. Significant allocation in low risk portfolios.

"Enhancers": selected to increase portfolio long term return but exposed to equity risk. Allocation likely to increase with risk tolerance as returns become more volatile.

"Diversifiers": selected for low correlation to traditional market equity and fixed income risk. Diversifiers are essential for efficiency in all but the lowest and highest risk portfolios.
